Jose Damasso Ramon, (National University of Colombia)

Bonnie Bradshaw is on a world mission to destroy the enemy's hold on God's precious daughters. Unveiling your eyes to the truth of God and the hatred the enemy feels for each of us. The very thing that holds us in fear, and wants to crumble our every desire is the same deceitful enemy who causes us to hate who we are inside and out. He paralyzes each of us so the Lord's will is blinded behind the negativity we hold on to. Learning to release the chains that bind us that paralyze each of us will free our souls to the joy and accomplishments we were meant to achieve. Her topics are heartfelt, biblically sound, and pertinent to the needs, lives, and struggles of today's women.

Bonnie is a wife, mother and grand-mother who found healing when Jesus reached into her well of sadness and hurt and set her free. From her painful past God created Through God's Lens Ministry and Code Red Ladies both solidly created for the Beauty of women's spirit and soul.

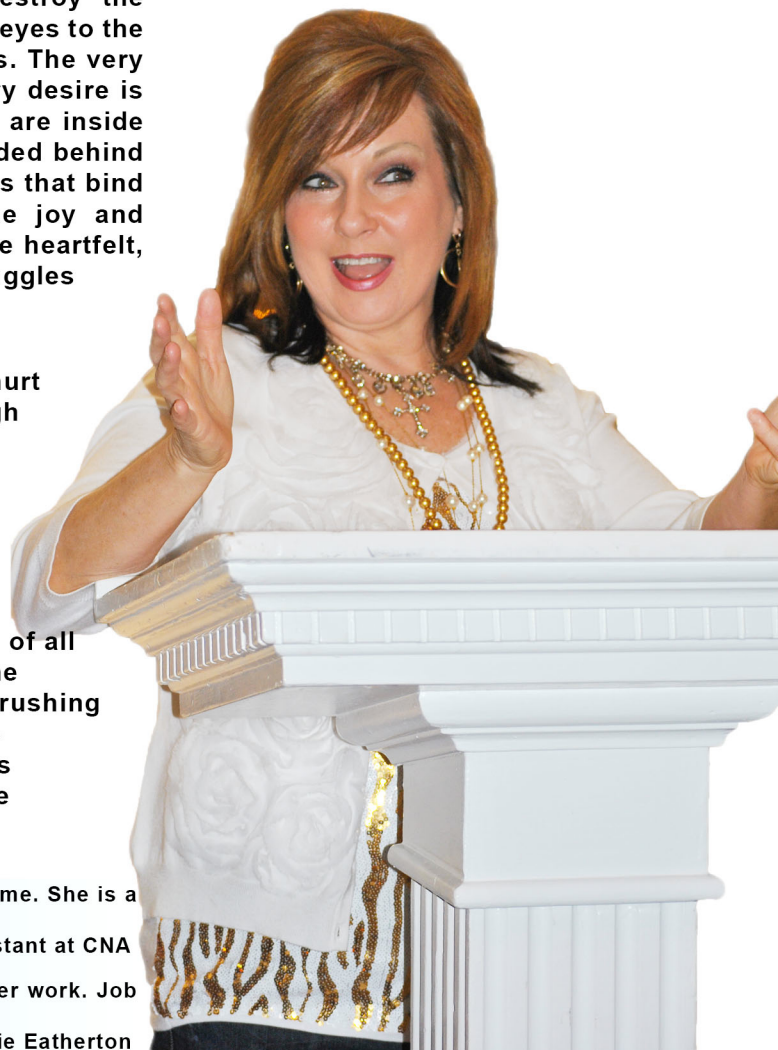

Bonnie has been helping women/youth girls heal from past/present hurts through God's word and discovering how the enemy invades the smallest spots of our lives and then devours us for well over 20 years. Bonnie has been teaching, mentoring and inspiring women of all ages through her writings, talks, coaching, programs as she travels across the United States and soon Internationally crushing the enemy plan for our lives. She is a member of True Love Community Church where her husband Pastors. Bonnie has reached her international audience through hosting her live Radio Show once a week, her free webinars, and is now starting a video series.

"How To Crack The Code To True Happiness"

In four intense hours you will learn how to crack that code to true happiness. You will learn proven techniques to expunge all that is corrupting your heart and spirit from living your true radiance and beauty.

The world can be a very vicious place if you allow it, so I am excited to finally bring you this workshop I have poured my heart and soul into to empower, encourage and educated my sisters in this world to walk in truth and dignity.

Learn to recognize false truths and cancerous leeches that survive only to destroy you. Learn how to crush them before they reach your life's space. Breathe excellence, so don't wait any longer. Contact me today to book your seat for the upcoming workshop. We will only sell 20 seats due to the personal attention this workshop requires. I will hold this workshop three times this year only. Start your new journey now so you don't waste another year wishing for something different.

Daily Affirmations: Life Changers

Affirmations are positive personal statements about what you really want in any department of life.

- Destroying negative thoughts, words and beliefs right on the spot when they try to seep in your mind.
- Immediately replacing negative thoughts with empowering, expansive visions of abundance ~ your goals.
- Gradually transitioning your mental attitudes, habits, emotional reactions, behaviors for a successful life.

The daily practice of affirmations can take you to the manifestation of your dreams to your life's reality only if you allow them.

• Birthing Your Soul's Calling – Do you have a sense that you are here in this lifetime to make an important contribution to our planet? You may have a sense of it, and you may be well on your way. In this talk, Bonnie offers a model for how to identify your soul's calling, or destiny path, and how you can make steady progress each week.

• Be YOU. Be BEAUTIFUL. Showing women how beauty inside and out can attract the LIFE they crave and help them build the life of their dreams.

• Value In High Heels. Inspiring women through Bonnie's personal journey from abuse, homelessness, and broke to a life as a healthy, happy victorious woman. Women will be inspired by her courage to face the unknown, putting her life in God's hands and how she decided to create and determine her own success.

• You are the Masterpiece! Addressing the truth of who God says we are and who we are designed become on this earth. Women will be inspired to make a shift in their lives and consider self-love as a means to experiencing transformation in their lives

• Where's My Tiara? Never leave home without it. You are the Radiance of God. Created by the Creator of all things, the one who never makes a mistake and don't deal in junk. You will walk in your own radiance knowing you are called to glorious things. Be present in body and mind to absorb this powerful lesson.

How many heroes have you had in your lifetime? Who have you looked up to for inspiration or that blueprint for life? We all have it in us to be our own Heroes to be our own Super Star of life. We don't have to look for someone else to validate us or copy for acceptance. We are all uniquely made be the most powerful hands to walk in truth so where did we stop believing in our own abilities?

Learn to walk in your own TRUTH and be PROUD to do so. Life isn't as hard as we make it, but sometimes when we are a bit lost we need confirmation to reach our true destination.

This speech can be crafted as a conference, workshop or retreat.
